

Rio Grande do Sul, Brazil

UTE Canoas – thermal power plant (natural gas / diesel oil (OCTE))

STEAG Energy Services do Brasil in a consortium with Camargo Correa to provide operation and maintenance services in this power plant project to the biggest Brazilian public oil corporation, Petrobras. The scope of services included: O&M and training for the natural gas open cycle, supervision and support for the bifuel (OCTE and Natural Gas) project including commissioning, performance and acceptance tests, continued by the Operation & Maintenance and training services.

Project Facts

Installed capacity	170 MW - open cycle (NG / OCTE)
Commissioning	2002 open cycle commissioning (natural gas) 2008 open cycle commissioning (bifuel)
Customer	Petrobras Energia
Partner in consortium	Camargo Correa
Execution of SES services	2002 – 2011